What's New

Women's hockey team opens season versus McGill on Friday

A new era in women's hockey begins Friday at 7 p.m. when the Concordia Stingers open the Quebec Student Sports Federation (QSSF) season with a game against the McGill Martlets at Concordia Arena, 7200 Sherbrooke St. W.

Perhaps the best way to describe this new era is AC, After Cammi. Superstar Olympian Cammi Granato has left Concordia to pursue a gold medal with the U.S. Olympic team, leaving the Stingers to pursue another Quebec championship and a gold medal at the inaugural national championship without her.

While the Stingers will miss Granato's 71 points, centre Corinne Swirsky is back and poised to better the 58 goals and 28 assists she collected last season. Delaney Collins, the Stingers' outstanding defenceman, is also back and expected to play a big role in Concordia's run at the CIAU title. The Stingers are stacked with vets and have added some pretty impressive newcomers including transfer student Mai-Lan Lê, a left winger who was the MVP of the Quebec league last season as a member of the Trois-Rivières Patriotes.

Bishop's Gaiters 20

Concordia Stingers 19

The Bishop's Gaiters used the running game to defeat the Concordia Stingers 20-19 before 3,500 hometown fans at Coulter Field in Lennoxville, Que., on Saturday afternoon.

The Gaiters ran up 243 yards of rushing to send the Stingers packing. O.J. Burnett carried the ball 22 times for 140 yards, while quarterback Mark Stipe ran 14 times for 88 yards and one touchdown. Jeremy Tessier also chipped in 15 yards on three carries. It was the best outing from the Gaiters' back field in the last five years.

The Gaiters added 160 yards of passing for a net offence of 373 yards. Stipe completed 12 of 21 passes. Defensively, linebacker Rob Smith had 14 tackles, including an impressive 11 solo tackles.

The Stingers had a net offence of 273 yards. Fullback Scott Ashworth rolled up 82 yards on 16 carries. Four Concordia players were in double digits on the tackling charts: tackle Jeff Anderson, 16; rush end Rob Balazic, 14; tackle Louis Daniele, 13; and linebacker Thom Hay, 11. Also putting in a solid effort was kicker Dave Miller-Johnston who connected on three of four field goal attempts. He was successful from 34, 37 and 43 yards out. He grazed the goal post on his 45-yard miss.
